FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ABMA Announces Official Launch of New Digital Resource Center and Teases New 'Learn & Lead' Series

Vienna, VA – October 8, 2026 – The American Boiler Manufacturers Association (ABMA) is proud to announce the official public launch of the new ABMA Resource Center (ABMAresources.com), a comprehensive digital platform designed to house the resources that power the boiler industry. Now LIVE, this centralized hub offers professionals unparalleled access to educational content, technical tools, and industry insights.

While the platform was initially introduced in a soft-launch phase in April 2026, today marks the official rollout of the complete digital experience. The newly designed website brings together ABMA's most valuable assets into one streamlined, user-friendly interface.

"We are thrilled to officially unveil the ABMA Resource Center to the entire boiler industry," said Shaunica Jayson, Interim President & CEO at ABMA. "This platform serves as a one-stop shop for everything from critical technical resources and training webinars to our widely popular Inside the Boiler Room podcast. It reflects our ongoing commitment to advancing the boiler sector through accessible, high-quality education and tools."

Explore What is LIVE Right Now

Key features of the newly launched ABMA Resource Center include:

- ABMA Members Map: A new interactive tool designed to easily locate our members and their facilities across the country, making it simpler than ever to connect with industry partners.
- White Papers & Technical Guides: In-depth documents covering critical topics such as the Stack-loss Method to Calculating Boiler Efficiency, Boiler Installation Guides, and Steam Applications.
- Webinar & Podcast Streaming: On-demand access to ABMA's robust webinar library—including BOILER 2024 general sessions and WIBI (Women in the Boiler Industry) panels—and episodes of the Inside the Boiler Room podcast.

- Industry Tools: Practical, on-the-job digital assets like the Boiler Efficiency Calculator and Boiler Maintenance Schedule.
- Boiler History & Basics: Foundational knowledge areas, including "Boiler 101" and a historical timeline of the boiler industry.
- Exclusive Merchandise: A brand-new storefront featuring official ABMA apparel.

Coming Soon: The ABMA Learn & Lead Webinar Series As part of the Resource Center's continued expansion, ABMA is thrilled to announce the upcoming debut of ABMA Learn & Lead, a brand-new monthly webinar series dedicated to high-level technical mastery and industry advancement. Hosted by ABMA and presented by our best-in-class member experts, this series will deliver strictly educational, non-commercial technical content.

The recorded sessions—starting with the inaugural presentation, "How to Build a Good RFP for Burners" presented by Zeeco—will be available for on-demand purchase to the public within the Resource Center starting in late October.

Professionals across the commercial and industrial boiler sectors are encouraged to explore the newly launched platform and take advantage of these vital resources. To experience the new digital hub, please visit ABMAresources.com.

For any questions, feedback, or issues related to the new ABMA Resource Center, please contact Erin Gehringer, Membership & Marketing Coordinator, at erin@abma.com or Shaunica Jayson at shaunica@abma.com.

About ABMA

Since our founding in 1888, the American Boiler Manufacturers Association (ABMA) has advocated for the safe production and operation of boilers, facilitated advances in energy efficiency, and provided solutions for our member companies. Throughout our history, the boiler industry and our member base have relied on the ABMA to lead the industry as it tackles challenges and embraces opportunities in our constantly evolving sector. Through participation with ABMA, our members are better informed, connected, and positioned to thrive in today's global boiler industry. To learn more, please visit ABMA.com.
